St. James's, December 2.

THE following Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor and States of the Iſland of Guernſey has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Delaware: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor, and States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beg Leave to take this firſt Opportunity of our aſſembling, to congratulate your Majeſty on the great and ſignal Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, and of your Allies; Allies, whoſe Juſtice, Humanity, and Magnanimity, (ſet in Oppoſition to the Injuſtice, Cruelty, and Baſeneſs of your Enemies) ſhew them, only, worthy of purſuing the ſame righteous Cauſe with your Majeſty; and for which the Divine Providence has ſo manifeſtly declared itſelf.

What Honour! What Glory! muſt redound to your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, from having the Almighty your viſible Protector: He pours out His Bleſſings on the great Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels, and gives Succeſs to your Majeſty's Allies, and to the generous Efforts and Valour of your Majeſty's brave Officers, and Men under their Command.

The Thunder of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies has reſounded throughout the whole World. In Europe, the People of France, ſcared, and diſmayed, have ſeen their Harbours blown up, and their Ships in Flames. In Aſia, the French Forces have been routed, and the Indians have received a Nabob from the Hands of your Majeſty's Generals. In Africa, the ſtrong Fortification of Senegal has ſurrendered: And in America, oh glorious Event! Cape Breton is your Majeſty's; and the ſeveral French Men of War in its Harbour are burnt, ſunk, or taken.

With Hearts, therefore, full of Joy and Gratitude to God, and Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty, we offer Him our moſt fervent Prayers for the Preſervation of your precious Life and Health, and for the Continuance of His Bleſſings on your Majeſty's Arms, and thoſe of your Allies; till by a Series of Proſperities your Majeſty's Enemies may be forced to yield to ſuch Terms of Peace, as your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom and Juſtice, will think reaſonable to give them. We alſo implore His Divine Goodneſs, never to let the Britiſh Sceptre depart from your Auguſt and Illuſtrious Houſe, but that it may ſucceſſively deſcend to your Royal Progeny till Time ſhall be no more.

Berlin, Nov. 21. After the Junction of M. de Dohna and Major General de Wedel on the 14th, they directed their March towards Eulenbourg, where General Haddick had halted, after having been repulſed at Torgau, and had his Camp upon an Eminence above Eulenbourg, having the River Mulda in Front; and had placed ſome Pandours in the Town, as well as in a Village lying before the Town, M. de Wedel, who commanded the Van-guard, detached Colonel de Hordt, with his Regiment, in order to diſlodge the Pandours, which he executed with ſo much Bravery, that the Enemy abandoned the Village and Town with the utmoſt Precipitation, and were entirely put to Flight by Major General Malachowſki, who ſwam over the Mulda with his Huſſars and five Squadrons of Dragoons. The Enemy loſt 200 Men; three Officers, three Subalterns, and eighty private Men were made Priſoners; and three Pieces of Cannon, and two Ammunition Waggons, were taken. After this Action, the Enemy raiſed the Blockade of Leipzig, and retired towards Freyberg.

In Sileſia the Auſtrians had raiſed on the 9th the Blockade of Coſſel; but they returned before that Place on the 11th. Lieutenant General Fouquet having been informed thereof, detached, on the 14th, the Generals Golitze and Werner, with three Battalions and four Squadrons, in order to relieve that Fortreſs; but as ſoon as the Enemy knew of the Approach of our Troops, they retired, in Confuſion, over the Oder, abandoning their Baggage. Major General Lettorf, Governor of Coſel, made a Sally upon this Occaſion, in which 50 Pandours were killed, and 30 made Priſoners.

The Swedes are ſtill at Prentzlow, and ravage Part of the Ukermark. General Manteuffel keeps them in Awe on the Side of the Marche; and Detachments of the Garriſon of Stettin prevent their extending themſelves beyond the Uker and the Randow.

The Ruſſian Army continues its Retreat by Conitz towards the Viſtula; and General Fermor was expected on the 15th at Marienwerder.

Dreſden, Nov. 23. The King of Pruſſia received the News of the Siege of this Place being raiſed ſoon after he had paſſed Gorlitz, and immediately gave Orders for the main Body of his Army to march into Sileſia, and advanced himſelf towards this City at the Head of eight Battalions of Infantry, two Regiments of Cavalry, and one of Huſſars, and arrived here on the 20th Inſtant. Marſhal Daun's Army has paſſed Giſhubel, and the main Body of it is actually in Bohemia. In their March they did not demoliſh the Caſtle of Sonenſtein, but ruined ſome of the Works, which are of no great Importance. The Pruſſians are in Poſſeſſion of Freyberg, and the Army of the Empire continues to retire before them. According to all Appearances, the Campaign is drawing to a Concluſion. There have been ſix Sieges raiſed almoſt at the ſame Time, viz. Thoſe of Colberg, of Neiſs, of Coſſel, of Dreſden, of Torgau, and of Leipzig.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterſon was Maſter, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and alſo with the Baggage, conſiſting consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheese: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatchways, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his the said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, on or before the 31st of December next, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies abovementioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the abovementioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Clevland.

Admiralty-Office, August 14, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outragious Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of neutral Ships, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships and Vessels pretending to be English Privateers;

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Offences, in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, on or before the 31st of December next, discover any two or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof; which Reward shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall likewise be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Clevland.

Navy Office, November 29, 1758.

A Letter having been received by Daniel Devert, Esq; Clerk of the Acts of his Majesty's Navy, dated the 6th Instant, and signed W. M. The principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that if the Writer of the said Letter will attend, and give them any Information concerning the Subject Matter of the said Letter, he may depend on receiving suitable Reward and Encouragement for the same, and that strict Secrecy will be observed.

N. B. If the Author chooses rather to apply to the said Daniel Devert, Esq; than appear at the Board, he is at Liberty to do so.

Navy Office, December 1, 1758.

The principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that there is in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money for paying all Bills registered on the Course of the Navy in the Month of June, 1758, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally empowered to receive the same, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment accordingly.
